 Several Gentlemen, &c. having desired me to give them one of my Bills of every Year I have printed heretofore (which I could not procure for them) I have therefore transcribed from my Book the above Account; which I hope will be equally satisfactory to them, it containing the Bills of Mortality within the Parish of All-Saints, from Dec. 21, 1734, to Dec. 21, 1745, being two Years before I printed any.

N. B. In the Number of the Christened in the Parish of All-Saints are included all such as are Registered, tho' they were not Baptized according to the Rites of the Establish'd Church: And in the Burials are included those Buried at the Quakers Burying-Ground, the Meeting on the Green, and that in College-Lane. Likewise in the Burials in St. Peter's Parish are included those Buried at the Meeting there.

WHOE'ER the Prospect of Mankind surveys,
At divers Ages, and by divers Ways,
Will find 'em from this noisy Scene retire;
Some the first Minute that they breathe, expire.
Others, perhaps, survive to talk, and go,
But die before they Good or Evil know.

Here one to Puberty arrives, and then
Returns lamented to the Dust again:
Another there, maintains a longer Strife
With all the pow'rful Enemies of Life;
Till with Vexation tir'd, and threescore Years,
He drops into the Dark, and disappears.
